

SPILL AND SORT

Materials: Bucket of two types of objects such as pompoms and plastic animals. Include about 10 of each.

Take a toy bucket along on a pretend picnic. Help your baby spill the bucket and sort.

These are alike. They are all bears.

Let's put the bears together.

Where should we put a pompom?

SPILL AND FILL

Materials: Bucket of two types of objects such as pompoms and plastic animals. Include about 10 of each.

Take a toy bucket along on a pretend picnic. Help your baby spill the bucket. Then, fill it up together:

*I'll put in pompoms.
You put in bears.*

Spill and fill a different way:

This time, I'll put in bears. You put in pompoms.

COPY MEMaterials: None

Try this anywhere, anytime. First, you do something, then your baby does it. Repeat!

First, I clap. Then, you clap.

*I say "peekaboo!"
Next, you say
"peekaboo!"*

*I touch my nose.
Next, you touch
your nose.*

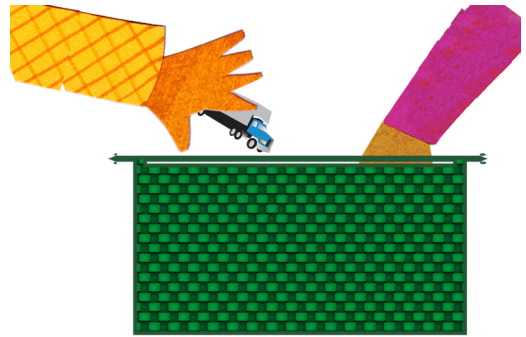

OPPOSITE ACTIONS

Materials: Container and toy that fits inside it

Try this anywhere, anytime. First you do something, then your baby does the opposite. Repeat!

I take the toy out of the container. You put it back in.

I say your name. You say my name.

Ana!

Mommy!

*I tap you.
You tap me.*
